II. The Registered Address of the Gymkhana shall be: (Temporary) «R. Hercis 5 de Outubro», Panjim Goa.

III. The aims and objects of the Society shall be to promote in general the Moral, Physical and Material uplift of its members and in particular further:

(1) To create and promote a liking for physical culture.

(2) To make provision for training the younger generation in athletic and gymnastic games.

(3) To promote a feeling of mutual co-operation by bringing together persons of all castes and creeds.

(4) To foster and encourage the spirit of social service by rendering all possible voluntary help in social functions.

(5) To provide for training in First Aid to the Injured.

(6) To provide a centre of social entertainment and physical culture.

(7) To borrow or to raise money which may be required for the purposes of the Gymkhana upon securities etc., of the Gymkhana or a charge of the Gymkhana property.

(8) Generally to do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

1. Qualifications for membership: All persons who are not less than 18 years of age shall be eligible for membership of the Gymkhana.

2. Classes of membership: The Gymkhana shall consist of the following classes of Members:

- (a) Donors
- (b) Sympathisers
- (c) Patrons
- (d) Life Members
- (e) Ordinary Members
- (f) Casual Members
- (g) Non-resident Members
- (h) Honorary Members.

3. Admission of members: Every candidate seeking admission as a member to any class other than the Honorary Members, shall apply to the Hon. Secretaries in the prescribed form. Such application shall be proposed by one and seconded by another member of the Gymkhana not being Casual, Non-resident, or Honorary member.

4. The application for membership shall be accompanied by a deposit equivalent to the sum of the prescribed entrance fee and one month's subscription in the case of Ordinary, Casual, or Non-resident Members and at least ¼th of the fees payable under these Rules in the case of Donors, Sympathisers, Patrons, and Life Members.

5. Admission of a member to any class shall be by election by the Managing Committee.

6. The Managing Committee shall have the power to accept or reject any application for membership and will not be bound to give reasons for non-acceptance of any application.

On the acceptance of the application, the Hon. Secretaries shall communicate the decision to the applicant.

7. If a candidate is not elected a member by the Managing Committee, he shall be entitled to a refund of the deposit made by him.

8. Fees:

(a) Donors: Persons paying Rs. 5000/- or more in one sum shall be styled Donors.

(b) Sympathisers: Persons paying Rs. 2500/- or more in one sum shall be styled Sympathisers.

(c) Patrons: Persons paying Rs. 1000/- or more in one sum shall be styled Patrons.

(d) Life-members: Persons paying Rs. 200/- or more in one sum shall be styled Life Members.

(e) Ordinary Members: A person who pays the monthly general subscription viz Rs. 2/- and the entrance fee viz Rs. 10/- fixed by the Managing Committee shall be styled Ordinary Member.

(f) Casual Members: A person who is ordinarily resident outside the limits of Panjim and who, desiring to play any game pays the fees fixed by the Managing Committee in this behalf shall be styled Casual Member. Such person shall not continue as a Casual Member for more than 3 months continuously.

(g) Non-Resident Members: A person ordinarily resident outside the limits of Panjim and who pays the entrance fees and monthly subscription fixed by the Managing Committee from time to time shall be styled Non-Resident Member.

(h) Honorary Members: A person who on account of his proficiency in any game or sports or position in life is, in the opinion of the Managing Committee, a person fit to be included as an Honorary Member may be nominated as such by the Committee provided he is otherwise eligible to be a member of the Gymkhana.

9. Donors, Sympathisers, Patrons and Honorary members shall be exempt from paying general or departmental fees of any or all games.

Life Members shall have all the privileges of Ordinary members during their lifetime. They shall, however, have to pay the departmental fees, if they choose to join any department.

10. Department and their fees: For the purpose of organising and conducting the several games managed by the Gymkhana, the Managing Committee shall have power to create a department for any game or games and to fix entrance and departmental fees payable by members desirous of taking part in the said games. The Managing Committee, if it thinks fit, may fix composite entrance and departmental fees for members desirous of joining more than one department. Sympathisers, Patrons, and Life Members shall be allowed to take part in any of the above games for a total period of not more than ten days in any year without paying any fees.

11. Persons below 18 years: The Managing Committee shall have power to allow persons under 18 years to take part in any of the games at such reduced general or departmental fees as the Committee may from time to time decide.

12. Such person (if he so likes) may commute his general subscription for life by paying the Life Membership fee, but will not be styled a Life member until he completes the age of 18 years.

13. Subscriptions when due: All subscriptions and fees become due on the first day of each month and shall be paid within the first ten days of the commencement of the month for which they are due.

14. Reduced scale of fees: Notwithstanding the above provisions the Managing Committee shall have power to fix a reduced scale of fees for any class of persons with a view to creating a taste for physical culture among such class.

15. Cessation of membership: A member shall cease to be a member of the Gymkhana:

- (i) if by a letter addressed to the Hon. Secretaries he resigns membership and pays all monies due by him to the Gymkhana.
- (ii) if he is adjudged an insolvent.
- (iii) if he is found guilty by a competent tribunal of an offence involving, in the opinion of the Managing Committee, gross misconduct or moral turpitude.
- (iv) if he becomes a defaulter under Rule 16 (a).

(v) on expulsion from the Gymkhana under Rule 18 (2).

16. Defaulter:

(a) If any member has not paid the general subscription or the fee of any department of which also he is a member within a period of two months and ten days from the time it has become due, his name shall, after ten days previous notice to such defaulting member, be posted on the notice board as a defaulter and if within one month from the date of his name being placed on the notice board, he fails to pay all the arrears of subscription and fees, he shall cease to be a member of the Gymkhana. An entry in the postage book of such notice being posted shall be conclusive evidence of the notice being posted and sent to such members.

(b) No person shall be admitted as a member of the Gymkhana, who was previously a member of the Gymkhana and had been in arrears of any subscription or other fees prior to his ceasing to be a member and had not paid the same, unless he pays, besides the entrance fees, all such arrears of subscription and other fees due by him till he ceased to be a member of the Gymkhana.

(c) In the event of a candidate being admitted as a member and it appearing subsequently within a period of one month from the date of his admission that he was previously removed from the register for default he shall be called upon by the Hon. Secretaries to pay all his arrears immediately, failing which his name may be struck off the roll.

17. Forfeiture of deposit: In case a candidate, after applying for membership, wishes to withdraw the application or desires not to join the Gymkhana the deposit made by him with his application will stand forfeited to the Gymkhana.

18 (1). Suspension of censure of a member:

(a) The Managing Committee may suspend any member who is proved to the satisfaction of the Managing Committee to have been guilty of any act or conduct which will discredit or harm the reputation of the Gymkhana from exercising all rights and privileges of a member during such period as they may think fit not exceeding one month or they may censure any member for any act or conduct which, in their opinion, renders censure necessary or expedient.

(b) The resolution of suspension or censure shall be passed by a majority of two-thirds of the members of the Managing Committee present at the meeting called for the purpose; provided that the Managing Committee, before passing a resolution as aforesaid, afford the member, by giving him eight days' notice, an opportunity of giving an explanation, personally or in writing, as the member may choose, of his act or conduct.

(c) No appeal shall lie from the decision of Managing Committee.

(2) If any member refuses or neglects to comply with any provision of these Rules or any bye-law made thereunder or is guilty of such conduct as would be derogatory to the prestige of the Gymkhana or would, in the opinion of the Managing Committee, render him unfit to be a member of the Gymkhana, such member shall be liable to expulsion from the Gymkhana by a resolution of the Managing Committee; Provided that no less than two thirds of the members present at a meeting called for the purpose shall have voted in favour of the same, and provided also that at least fourteen days before the meeting at which such resolution is passed he shall have had notice thereof and of the intended resolution for his expulsion and shall have had, before the passing of such resolution, an opportunity of giving orally or in writing any explanation or defence he may think fit.

Provided, however, that an aggrieved member shall have a right of appeal against the decision of the Managing Committee to the General Body by having special General Meeting requisitioned in the manner provided in Rule 35, if such requisition sent to the Hon. Secretaries within fifteen days of the intimation to the member of the resolution expelling him.

19. President and Vice-Presidents: The President and two Vice-Presidents shall be elected once in three years at the Annual General meeting.

20. Managing Committee: The Managing Committee shall consist of ten persons elected annually by the Annual General Meeting of which not less than five shall be from among Donors, Sympathisers, Patrons and Life Members.

21. Vacancies in Managing Committee: The Managing Committee shall have power to co-opt any member eligible to be a member of the Managing Committee to fill any casual vacancy in the Managing Committee and a member so co-opted shall continue to act on the Managing Committee until the next Annual General Meeting.

22. Qualifications for membership of Managing Committee: No ordinary member of less than two years' standing shall be entitled to be a candidate for the election of members to the Managing Committee.

No casual, Non-resident, or Honorary member shall be eligible to be elected as a member of the Managing Committee or to be the Secretary of any department.

No ordinary member of less than six months' standing shall be eligible to be the Secretary of any department. In special cases, however, this limit may be lowered by the Managing Committee.

23. Election for Managing Committee: Any two members entitled to vote may propose a candidate or candidates for membership of the Managing Committee by notice in writing to the Hon. Secretaries, giving at least five days' notice before the Annual General Meeting, and the Hon. Secretaries shall forthwith notify the same on the notice board. The proposal shall have the consent of the candidate or candidates in writing.

The voting shall be by a single non-transferrable vote for each seat on the Managing Committee and shall be by ballot. The candidate who has received the majority of votes shall be declared elected. In case of a tie the same will be decided by drawing lots.

24. Duties and working of Managing Committee: The Managing Committee shall at its first meeting after the annual General Meeting, elect a Chairman, two Hon. General Secretaries and two Hon. Treasurers from amongst the elected members of the Managing Committee, for the year.

25. Any member of the Managing Committee not attending any of its meetings during a period of three months or absenting himself from three consecutive meetings of the Managing Committee, whichever period is longer, without previous intimation to the Managing Committee shall, ipso facto, cease to be a member of the Managing Committee. He shall also cease to be member of the Managing Committee, if he is posted for default under Rule, 16, or if he ceases to be a duly qualified member of the Gymkhana or resigns from the Managing Committee.

26. Every question before the Managing Committee shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members present. Every member of the Managing Committee, including the Chairman, shall have one vote. The Chairman shall, in case of equality of votes, have an additional casting vote.

27. The Hon. Secretaries shall ordinarily call a meeting of the Managing Committee at least once a month. They shall also call a meeting if five members of the Managing Committee require them to do so.

The meeting of the Managing Committee shall be called after giving at least 48 hours' notice. If, however, in the opinion of the Chairman and/or the Hon. Secretaries, an urgent meeting of the Managing Committee has to be called the Hon. Secretaries may do so by giving at least 24 hours' notice.

28. Six members present at a meeting of the Managing Committee shall form a quorum. An adjourned meeting need not have a quorum.

29. Minutes shall be taken of all the proceedings at the meetings of the Managing Committee and shall be open to inspection by any member of the Gymkhana applying to the Hon. Secretaries in that behalf.

30. Powers of the Managing Committee: The entire management and control of the Gymkhana shall be vested in the Managing Committee, who may exercise all such powers and do all such acts as the Gymkhana is by Statute or by these Rules authorised to exercise and do, and are not by Statute or these Rules directed or required to be exercised or done by the Gymkhana in the General Meeting; but subject, nevertheless, as to such acts as are not thus regulated by Statute or by these Rules to such regulations and directions as may from time to time be determined upon or given in General Meetings, provided that no such regulation or direction shall invalidate any prior act of the Managing Committee which would have been valid if the regulation or direction had not been made or given.

31. In furtherance of and without prejudice to the general powers conferred by or implied in the last preceding Rule it is hereby expressly declared that the Managing Committee shall be entrusted with and may exercise and perform the following powers and duties:

(a) to appoint or dismiss servants of the Gymkhana and to fix their remuneration.

(b) from time to time make, alter or repeal all such bye-laws not inconsistent with these Rules, as the Managing Committee may deem expedient for the proper conduct and management of the Gymkhana or the different departments of the Gymkhana.

(c) to prohibit particular games on the Gymkhana premises entirely or at any particular time and regulate the rules to be observed and stakes to be played for by members or guests playing any games on the Gymkhana premises.

(d) to establish or to make rules for the appointment of sub-committees of members for the management of the affairs of the Gymkhana or any of its departments and to prescribe the procedure for such sub-committees and to delegate to them such powers as may be deemed expedient provided that such sub-committees shall not consist exclusively of members outside the Managing Committee.

(e) to purchase or otherwise acquire for the Gymkhana any property rights or privileges which the Gymkhana is authorised to acquire at such prices and generally on such terms and conditions as they think fit, provided that such decision is taken by a majority of 3/4ths of the total number of members of the Managing Committee.

(f) subject to the sanction of the President, to borrow or to raise money which may be required for the purposes of the Gymkhana upon bonds, debentures, bills of exchange or other obligations or securities of the Gymkhana or mortgage or charge of the Gymkhana property, provided that such decision is taken by a majority of 3/4ths of the total number of members of the Managing Committee.

(g) to invest and deal with monies of the Gymkhana not immediately required for the purposes thereof, upon such securities and in such manner as they may think fit, and from time to time to vary and realise these investments and to spend money as they may consider necessary in furtherance of the objects of the Gymkhana.

(h) to open accounts of any nature in any bank and to determine who shall be entitled to sign on the Gymkhana's behalf bills, notes receipts, cheques, contracts, documents, etc.

(i) to institute, conduct, defend, compromise or abandon any legal proceedings by or against the Gymkhana, its officers and servants or otherwise concerning the business or affairs of the Gymkhana and also compound or compromise any claims or demands by or against the Gymkhana.

(j) to extend such rights and privileges as the Managing Committee thinks fit to institutions or persons who will make handsome or special donations towards the building, general upkeep or other activities of the Gymkhana.

(k) to restrict or to make rules regarding the admission of guests to the Gymkhana premises.

(l) to do all things necessary for or conducive to the general interests of the Gymkhana.

32. The Managing Committee shall make rules for the election of department secretaries and departmental sub-committees.

33. Annual General and special General Meetings: The Annual General Meeting of the Gymkhana shall ordinarily be held within the first three months after the close of the Official Year on the date, time and place fixed by the Managing Committee for the purposes stated hereafter.

If the Managing Committee fails to convene such a meeting within the first six months after the close of the official year, the President shall, either by himself or on appeal from any member of the Gymkhana, call a General Meeting to elect a new Managing Committee.

34. Ten days at least before the Annual General Meeting a notice of such meeting and of the business to be transacted thereat shall be put on the notice-board in the Gymkhana and a copy thereof and of the audited accounts and the draft report shall be sent to every member. No other business than that of which notice has been given in the Agenda or under Rule 41 below shall be brought forward at such meeting. The draft report, balance sheet and statement of accounts shall also be put up on the notice-board ten days before the date of the meeting.

35. The Managing Committee may whenever it thinks fit, and shall on a requisition made in writing by at least thirty members entitled to vote call a Special General Meeting.

36. In case a meeting is requisitioned, the Managing Committee may, if it thinks fit, call upon the requisitionists to pay a deposit amount not exceeding Rs. 100/- to cover the costs of the meeting. Such deposit shall be forfeited to the Gymkhana if the resolution or resolutions proposed by the requisitionists fails to obtain the support of at least $\frac{1}{3}$ rd of the number of members present and entitled to vote at such meeting or if the meeting is abandoned for want of quorum.

37. On receiving a requisition and on receiving the deposit, if called for, the Managing Committee shall forthwith proceed to call a Special General Meeting.

38. The notice required for a Special General Meeting shall be ten days.

39. If, within two months after receipt of a requisition and six weeks after receipt of the deposit (when called for) whichever is earlier, the meeting is not held, the requisitionists or any of them may call a meeting within three months of the date of forwarding the requisition by giving the members of the Gymkhana ten days' notice of the same. Any reasonable expense incurred by the requisitionists by reason of the failure of the Managing Committee duly to convene a meeting shall be reimbursed to the requisitionists by the Gymkhana.

The amount paid to the requisitionists as above shall be recoverable from the delinquent members of the Managing Committee.

40. Quorum: Twenty-five persons entitled to vote shall form a quorum at any general meeting. If within half an hour after the appointed time for the meeting, a quorum of members is not present, the meeting, if called on a requisition of members, shall be dissolved; but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and place. No quorum shall be necessary for an adjourned meeting.

41. Notice of motion: Any motion or resolution other than a resolution seeking to alter, delete or add to the existing Rules of the Gymkhana may be moved at any meeting not being a requisitioned meeting by the member giving at least six days' notice thereof to the Hon. Secretaries, who shall forthwith put up the resolution sought to be moved on the notice-board of the Gymkhana. If the Hon. Secretaries fail to notify the resolution as aforesaid at least four days before the date of the meeting, the said meeting shall for the purpose of discussing the said resolution be adjourned to a suitable day as desired by the meeting.

42. Procedure at meeting: Accidental omission to or non-receipt of such notice by any member or members will not invalidate any resolution passed at such meetings.

43. The President, if present, shall take the chair at all General Meetings. In the absence of the President, one of the Vice-Presidents present or the senior in age of them, if both the Vice-Presidents are present shall take the chair. If the President or either of the Vice-Presidents is not present within ten minutes after the time appointed for such meetings or being present, is unwilling to act, the members present shall choose some one from amongst themselves to be the Chairman of that Meeting.

44. The Chairman may with the consent of the meeting adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.

For the purposes of this rule, a Resolution given notice of by any member under Rule 41, but not notified by the Hon. Secretaries as stated therein, shall be considered at the adjourned meeting.

45. Voting: Votings shall generally be by a show of hands, each member entitled to vote and present at the meeting shall have one vote.

A division may be demanded before or on the declaration of result by the show of hands, by at least five members entitled to vote and it shall be taken immediately in such manner as the Chairman of the meeting directs. The result of a division, if demanded, shall determine the resolution under consideration. No division shall be demanded on the election of the Chairman of the meeting.

In case of any dispute as to admission or rejection of a vote, the Chairman shall determine the same and such determination made in good faith shall be final and conclusive.

Voting on any resolution which relates to the censure or expulsion of a member or a non-confidence or censure against the Managing Committee or any Office-bearer shall be by ballot.

Voting by proxy shall not be allowed.

46. Eligibility to Vote: Except as hereinbefore provided, every member of the Gymkhana, who has been on the register for not less than six months from the date of joining is entitled to vote. Members who are below 18 years of age shall not have right to vote. Honorary, Casual, and Non-resident members are not entitled to vote but may take part in the discussion at any general meeting.

47. Official Year: The Official Year of the Gymkhana shall close on the 30th of June every year.

48. Books and Documents: The Managing Committee shall cause true accounts to be kept of all sums of money received and expended by the Gymkhana and the matters in respect of which such receipts and expenditure take place, of all sales and purchases of goods by the Gymkhana and of the assets, credits and liabilities of the Gymkhana.

49. The books of account and other documents of the Gymkhana shall be kept at the registered office of the Gymkhana and shall be open for inspection by any member of the Managing Committee or the Hon. Auditors.

50. Minutes of Meetings of the Managing Committee and of General Meetings shall be open to inspection by any member during office hours by giving reasonable notice to the Hon. Secretaries.

51. Audit: The Gymkhana at the Annual General Meeting each year shall elect two Hon. Auditors from amongst members. Members of the Managing Committee or persons indebted to or creditors of the Gymkhana shall not be eligible to be elected as Auditors.

If an Hon. Auditor elected at a meeting subsequently resigns or ceases to be a member of the Gymkhana the other may act alone or in collaboration with another Hon. Auditor nominated by the Managing Committee.

52. If at any time during the year both the Hon. Auditors resign, or are unwilling to audit the accounts or in the opinion of the Managing Committee cause unnecessary delay in the discharge of their duties the Managing Committee may appoint for the purpose of auditing the accounts any Registered Accountant and fix the remuneration to be paid to him by the Gymkhana for his services.

53. Notices: Any notice to be given by the Gymkhana to any member may be delivered either personally or by sending it by ordinary post to his registered address.

A notice under Rule 18(1) (b) or under 18(2) shall be given either personally or by registered post. Where a notice is sent by post, it shall be deemed to have been served at the time at which the letter will be delivered in the ordinary course of post. Where a period for giving notice is specified under Rules 18, 34, 38, 41 or 57, it shall be exclusive of the date on which it is served but inclusive of the day of the meeting.

54. Office-Bearers: — Hon. General Secretaries: The Hon. General Secretaries shall carry out and execute the resolutions passed and the directions given by the Managing Committee. They shall conduct all correspondence of the Gymkhana and keep record of the proceedings of the meetings etc., and in particular:

- (a) See that the Rules and Bye-laws made under these Rule are duly observed by the members,
- (b) Call the meetings of Managing Committee and the General Meetings of the Gymkhana,
- (c) Generally supervise the Managing of all the activities in all the departments of the Gymkhana, and
- (d) Be in charge of all books and documents of the Gymkhana.

55. Hon. Treasurers: The Hon. treasurers shall receive all moneys payable to the Gymkhana and shall not without the sanction of the Managing Committee make any payment out of the moneys of the Gymkhana.

56. They shall maintain proper books of account and submit a quarterly statement of accounts at the meeting of Managing Committee called immediately after the close of each official quarter.

At the close of the year, they shall prepare an income and expenditure account for the year and the balance sheet as at the end of the official year, to be audited by the auditors and submitted to the Annual General Meeting.

57. Alteration or suspension of rules: These Rules or one or more of them shall not be altered, deleted, added to or suspended unless at least 10 days' notice of the proposed alteration, deletion, addition or suspension is given to the members and the resolution is passed by a majority of 2/3rd of the members present at a General Meeting of the Gymkhana.

58. No Rule which relates to the rights of Donors, Sympathisers, Patrons, and Life-members shall be altered or deleted unless the alteration or deletion is passed by a majority of 2/3rds of the members present at a General Meeting of the Gymkhana and confirmed by a majority of members present at a special meeting of Donors, Sympathisers, Patrons, and Life-members. The quorum for such meeting shall be 10 and the procedure and the period of notice required for such a Special Meeting shall be the same as those for a General Meeting of the Gymkhana.

59. Arbitration: Any difference or dispute between the Gymkhana and any member arising out of or incidental to the rights of the parties in the relation of the Gymkhana and member shall be referred to two Arbitrators, one to be named by the Managing Committee and the other by the member, or the umpire chosen by such arbitrators.

If either the Managing Committee or the member concerned does not within a reasonable time appoint an arbitrator the arbitrator appointed by the remaining party shall act alone.

60. Members of the Managing Committee, Auditors, Secretaries, Trustees and other office-bearers shall be indemnified by the Gymkhana for all losses and expenses incurred by them in or about the discharge of their respective duties except such as happen from their respective wilful act or default.

Trustees:

61. All the immovable properties and invested Funds of the Gymkhana (exclusive, however, of amounts in Bank accounts) shall remain vested and shall stand in the name of trustees of the Gymkhana.

62. There shall always be not less than three and not more than five trustees of the Gymkhana. The trustees shall be appointed from amongst the Donors, Sympathisers, Patrons, or Life-Members of the Gymkhana, by election at the General Meeting of the Gymkhana of which previous notice had been given to members as required by these rules. Any vacancy in the office of the trustees caused by any cause whatsoever shall also be filled in the same manner.

63. A trustee shall cease to be a trustee if he dies, or becomes physically or mentally incapable to attend to his normal duties, or resigns or he ceases to be a member of the Gymkhana or is adjudicated insolvent, or remains out of Panjim continuously for a period of more than one year or if he is convicted by a Court of Law for an offence involving moral turpitude, or if he is removed by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members present and entitled to vote at a General Meeting of the Gymkhana called for the purpose.

64. The trustees shall be only holding trustees and unless and until otherwise provided by a trust deed or otherwise all the powers and authorities of the management of and dealings with the trust-property and Funds shall remain with the Managing Committee. The trustees shall act as per the directions of the Managing Committee or the General Body given from time to time.

65. No immovable property of the Gymkhana shall be disposed of, sold, leased or otherwise dealt with except with the sanction of the General Meeting of the Gymkhana called for the purpose. Except as aforesaid, the Managing Committee shall have full power to deal with the Trust property and funds for the purpose of the Gymkhana as provided in rule 31.

66. The trustees shall have the right to attend and vote in any meeting of the Managing Committee when any question relating to the trust property or fund is to be considered and notice of such meetings shall be given to the trustees.
